

DID YOU KNOW . . . . POOL FACTS

- There is over 100,000 lbs. of reinforcing steel in the concrete walls and slabs.
- There is over 200,000 lbs. of structural steel used in the construction of the building.
- There is approx. 80 kms of electrical wiring used thru-out the pool areas.
- There is over 1km of 4ft.wide insulated panels on the exterior of the building.
- There is more than a 1/3 acre of tile thru out the facility, with almost 1/4 million 2" square tiles in the pools themselves.
- It takes 375,000 liters of water to fill the lap pool which has 2 pumps that will pump 14.2 liters per second each.
- It takes 140,000 liters of water to fill the leisure pool which has 1 pump that will pump 25.2 liters per second.
- It takes 9500 liters of water to fill the swirl pool which has 1 pump that will pump 9.5 liters per second.
- There are 21 meters of masonry block walls, with a total of 7600 concrete masonry blocks using a total of 2100m of rebar.